

Potential and Achievement:
Making the Connection in Support of Excellence

AGTSLA is a non-profit organization providing resources for parents, educators, administrators, and counselors working with gifted/high potential, talented, and 2E students. We seek to aid those interested in understanding how to recognize, support, and advocate for such individuals and programs.

Join us October 20th for a Regional Welcome

Where: Barbe High School cafeteria Times: 4:30 p.m. social; 5-6p.m. meeting

Child care available (please RSVP agtslouisiana.org@gmail.com ages of children who will be attending)

Why Come?

- Meet others with vested interests in gifted/talented/2E children and programs
- Hear about the benefits of joining AGTSLA and becoming an active member
- Be introduced to parent & educator resources through AGTSLA sites and newsletters